

BWXT Releases 2024 Sustainability Report

March 14, 2024

LYNCHBURG, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- BWX Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: BWXT) has released its 2024 Sustainability Report, demonstrating the company's role in good governance, environmental stewardship, the ongoing global clean-energy transition, global security, investment in the communities where we operate, and many other initiatives critical to corporate social responsibility (CSR) excellence.

"At BWXT, we are committed to the employment of nuclear technology to solve some of the world's most important problems," said Rex Geveden, BWXT's president and chief executive officer. "This year's Sustainability Report showcases the strides we continue making to strengthen our duty as a responsible business, and it highlights our legacy of manufacturing safe, high-quality components and our position as an industry leader in new nuclear advances in clean, secure energy, nuclear medicine and environmental management."
